

White River Valley Electric Cooperative News Release

Contact:

Cassie Cunningham, Communications Coordinator
O: (417) 335-9231, C: (417) 849-1148
ccunningham@whiteriver.org

For immediate release: May 5, 2016

Fishing tournament marks 10 years this weekend

BRANSON, Missouri – Anglers from across the Ozarks are invited to White River Valley Electric Cooperative’s annual Hooked on Education fishing tournament benefiting the Scholarship Trust Fund on Saturday, May 7. The first flight will launch at 7 a.m. from Theodosia Marina at Bull Shoals Lake. Prize money totals 70 percent payback.

Fishermen still have time to register for the tournament. Registration and check-in will begin at 5 a.m. on Saturday.

“This is one of the premiere fishing tournaments in this area and we look forward to making this the best year yet,” Tournament Director Cindy Rains said. “We have been able to provide local students with more than $1.2 million in financial assistance towards college tuition and career training expenses.”

The fee for a two-person team is $100. The official weigh-in begins at 3 p.m. and is open to the public to come watch. Find more information at whiteriver.org.

#

White River Valley Electric Cooperative is a Touchstone Energy Cooperative dedicated to ensuring our members receive safe and reliable service in their homes and businesses across five southwest Missouri counties including Ozark, Taney, Stone, Christian and Douglas.